Sheriff's Detectives Investigate Patient Death At Milwaukee County Mental Health Complex 5th Death This Year

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County sheriff's deputies responded to the Milwaukee County Mental Health Complex after receiving notification from staff of emergency life-saving procedures being performed on a patient shortly after 9:30 a.m. today.

Wauwatosa Fire Department medical personnel also responded and performed CPR on the 25-year-old male patient. Medical personnel pronounced his time of death at 10:04 a.m. Detectives with the Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division are assisting with the investigation, as is standard procedure for deaths at the county complex.

The cause of death will be determined by the Medical Examiner's office. No other information is available for release at this time.

This was the fifth death at the County Mental Health Complex this year, the ninth since 2010.
